God Promised us: -

Malachi 4 verses 5 – 6

*“Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord:
And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.*

God Fulfilled His Promise !

~In accordance with His Faithful Word~

Matthew ch 24 v4 to 27

~ Our Mother, Sister Babbage gave her Twins her Testimony and we would love to pass on to you the LOVE and Goodness of our Lord Jesus ~ Sister Joan Wilson

When we look back it is hard to get more than an approximate time in our lives when the Lord so graciously helped us but it happened around the end of the 1950s /beginning of the 1960s. Our Mother was diagnosed with cancer of the uterus which caused her much suffering. But despite this, she held on and would not follow her Specialist's advice, urging her time and again to undergo an operation, because if she didn't follow his advice, the time would come when she would be too weak to undergo surgery. But our Mum wanted her Lord to heal her, just as He promised in His Word in Matthew 7 v7 Ask and it shall be given to you... Every day, Mother would quote that Promise:...

'And with His stripes I am healed' ! Isaiah 53:5

St. John 14 v13-14 'And whatsoever ye shall ask in My Name, that will I do. If you ask anything in My Name, I will do it'. Isn't His Promise wonderful?

St. John 16 v24 'Hitherto, have ye asked nothing in My Name: Ask that ye shall receive, that your joy may be full'.

1 John 3 v22 'And whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His Sight.'

1 John 5 v14-15 'And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His Will, He heareth. And if we know that He hears us, what so ever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him'.

And Mum got down on her knees in prayer.

She asked the Lord to lead her to whom He would like to pray for her. Then she opened one of the magazines 'The Voice of Healing' that she used to get, and she went through all of the pages of the ministries of the men of God but kept coming back to the Prophet, William Branham because she felt drawn in the Spirit to his ministry although she didn't realize that God had sent him as His Prophet in Malachi 4 v5-6. At that time, none of us had heard that God had sent a Prophet, but He had put it in our Mum's heart. Immediately she wrote Bro. Branham a letter requesting prayer and, Oh, the waiting for an answer seemed so long! But the timing was right and the letter returned with a piece of ribbon that Bro. Branham had prayed over, and telling her to keep on believing the Lord Jesus. And then he said, "You do believe, don't you, Sister dear". He saw her faith. Mum was COMPLETELY HEALED! Hallelujah! And years later when we were walking along together, she told me that Brother Branham's words of encouragement had so blessed and encouraged her whenever she felt low. God knows who needs His help, and our Mum was certainly one who recognized her need of Him. And God was there. She lived 85yrs. And we thank Him for having sent the Prophet as He promised in Malachi and answering His Prophet's prayer. Glory to His Name!

In Malachi ch 4 v5 and 6 it says: "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."

Being a French protectorate, New Caledonia is difficult to do work in because of the language barriers. But by the grace of God the walls of the denominational systems are cracking and the message has got into this nation and is making great inroads as a result of the perseverance that Bro' Alex had since he first went there.

We flew to Lifou Island - the largest coral island in the world - on the 22nd and had meetings every night for 6 days. We hadn't made any arrangements for accommodation when we arrived and all the phone contacts that we had were not in range to receive our calls. So we went from one tribal tourist camp to another but there was nothing available to stay in. So one of the brothers knew of a woman in the bush who had a little house which he took us to. When she found out we were ministers she opened her house up to us and gave us full use of it for all the time we stayed there, free of charge. This lady (Sister Elaine) had an attitude much like the Shunnamite that Elisha met. But in her case, her husband had deserted her and taken away all her children other than one remaining daughter. She opened her doors to us and by the grace of God she accepted the message of the hour and the next day she took the CD's of Bro' Branham and played them out loud from her house over large speakers. She was asked "what is your greatest desire". She answered that all her "enfants" would be saved. On the last night on Lifou we had a public meeting using her house and a large number of people came up for prayer. The first one in line was her remaining daughter who gave her heart to the Lord. Many people had deliverances from smoking and other problems, praise the Lord.

Left: Bro' Jean is a brother who is planning the building of a church on his land near the coast on Lifou. This brother was donated an air ticket to fly to Vanuatu to spend some time with Bro' William Frank in Port Vila. Bro' William has been a minister of this message for a few years in Vanuatu and is teaching Bro' Jean about the message. Fortunately he is a French speaker also, and will be able to contribute greatly to the advancement of the Word of God in New Caledonia by helping Bro' Jean.

The finance for the building of this church on Lifou for Bro' Jean is being arranged by the Senior Sunday School class of Rapturing Grace Tabernacle in Stratford, New Zealand. If anybody would like to assist them with donations to get this building completed then please contact Bro' Arnaud Malan using this email address: malans.thousandhills@gmail.com

Left: The beautiful result of the work from last October, coming to pass...the congregation of the people coming into the Message of the hour! Praise the Lord!

Many French translations of message books are coming into the French pacific islands and the ball is rolling at a speed that cannot be stopped. Bro' Jean's wife stood up after the final meeting as if to prophesy. She said "it is too late for the denominations to stop this message".

I want to thank once again the donors who have contributed large finances to get this work done. The Lord knows who you are and what you do is unto Him. Our thanks to the prayer warriors and a special thanks to our supporting fellowships. But I wish to give a special salutation to our wives who help with the preparations, that go on for weeks without their husbands and hold the fort at home.

May the Lord bless you all. Shalom.

To the Editor

Dear precious Brother Charles,

Philippines

By God's grace, I have finally compiled our current and previous endeavours for our Typhoon Relief Efforts in the Philippines, and have created a short documentary video on the project as a visual report. I am presenting this video as a token of our gratitude to all of the brethren who have extended their financial assistance in this disaster relief endeavour.

You may opt to show this video in your church as well as with others who have helped in this project. I have tried to attach the video in this email but to no avail due to its bulkiness in file size. It is about 150 MB. So, I just decided to post the video in You tube instead for now. You may view the video in YouTube through this link:

<http://youtu.be/ejnQHZIBuI0>

You can also download the video to your computer by clicking the "download" button at this link:

God bless you and thank you so much for your untiring support for the Bride-Body of Christ in the Philippines. Our prayers are with you. Shalom!

Yours in Christ's service,

From the Editors Desk

By Bro Caleb Ward

This was given to me by a brother this week, and I thought it was timely considering there has been a sustained attack on Bro Branham's credibility recently, and one of the main contentions is Bro Branham's vision of the Ohio Bridge. The following is a statement by John "Jack" Vissing, the son of the late Richard Vissing, a former mayor of Jeffersonville.

Bro Caleb Ward

My Recollections of Brother Billy Branham

I recall Brother Billy Branham as being my dad's good friend. I met him in the 1950s, when my family was operating the Jefferson Villa Motel. My dad built the motel from 12 units to 43 before he sold it in 1960. We lived in our home which adjoined the office of the motel. It was a mom and pop operation, and we took care of it ourselves. Our office adjoined Mother's kitchen, and it was a friendly place. We had a television there, and a couch and it actually served as a family room for us. I recall Brother Billy frequently sitting in that room with my Dad as the two of them having a cup of coffee together and telling stories of times past. Brother Billy, like my father, was a downtown Jeffersonville native and had lived all of his life with not much in the form of assets. My dad loved him because he said Brother Billy had a job walking along railroad tracks checking lines and he shot rabbits and gave them to hungry people in the community. Brother Billy would share stories with Dad, and Dad would share back, and the two of them were best of friends.

My father always talked about Brother Billy having "insights, and the gift of vision." While I do not specifically remember Brother Billy himself prophesying the fall of the scaffolding during the construction of the George Rogers Clark Bridge, it was something that would have occurred when the two were young guys. My father was 14 when the bridge opened in 1929, and had sat in the car with his cousin for 12 hours waiting for the ribbon to be cut so they could be the first to drive across the bridge that linked Jeffersonville to Louisville, Kentucky. My father was given a bronze medallion that day at the ceremony to commemorate the bridge opening. I still have that medallion.

The story of the bridge collapse was not given to me by my Dad or by Brother Billy, but by my grandmother, Maud, and by a lady named Dorothy Phillips. She was about my dad's age and went to church with us at St. Luke's United Church of Christ. She was telling me about being a little girl watching the construction from the river bank. Remember, that although the depression had not "officially" begun, things were not very good economically in Jeffersonville at that time. Many people had no diversions, and spent time watching the construction of this bridge, as I am sure Brother Billy and my dad did as well. Dorothy recalled seeing scaffolding up around the piling in the first water pile, and she recalled it collapsing while there was a major cement pour and she saw men falling into the cement who were never removed. It was a tragedy at the time, and many people were appalled.

My father always told me there were people inside that first bridge piling. I do not ever recall him telling me there were 16. Now, while I do not remember the story of Billy prophesying that was going to occur, he did prophesy other things that my father advised me about. I also recall that he brought people to the Jefferson Villa Motel who came for healing. They would rent a room, and visit with Brother Branham. They would arrive on crutches, and go away walking. Not a common occurrence, but it was not an irregular occurrence. It happened multiple times. I am certain that my father believed Brother Billy's ability of prophesy, as well as to heal.

We had worked as a blue collar family in the garage business. In 1954, my dad moved to create a motel because there were family members too plentiful to make a good living in the Vissing's garage, so he went out on his own. In 1960, he sold the motel and in 1963 he ran for and was elected mayor of Jeffersonville. He served as mayor for 20 consecutive years which is the long standing record for longest time in continuous service to our community. During this time, Brother Billy and Dad were still friends. We had moved to a new home and we saw him less frequently than we had previously. He was still a guest at my Mother's table. One day, he arrived with a package wrapped in butcher paper. He said, "Here, Edna, this is for you." He had probably 10 pounds of bear steaks. Mother had never cooked bear, but was thrilled at the opportunity. I recall having a family gathering where people all shared bear meat, courtesy of Brother Billy.

The day Brother Billy was killed in the car wreck, I was at home and the phone rang and I believe it was Billy Paul asking for Dad to tell him the terrible news. I recall giving the phone to my dad, and watched his face as he gathered the details. I remember him going outside with tears running down his cheeks. During the funeral, my father had a prominent place inside the church. He had a line of sight out one of the side windows to the assistant chief of police, Edgar Branham, to make certain that if anything occurred he was there to handle any disruption. There was some belief by many that Brother Billy might rise. My dad was not convinced either way, but would not have put it past him.

I recall the prophesy of the bridge collapse being mentioned by my father, but I do not have a specific context. This would have been after Brother Billy's death. My belief is that Brother Billy was the real deal. He was not a fake. He healed people and he had insights that were divine.

In 1958, I suddenly came down with a strep infection that turned into rheumatic fever. I was hospitalized for an entire summer, and I have a permanent state of bad joints in my body and have a heart murmur that I still carry with me.

There was, in 1958, substantial concern for my very survival. I do recall Brother Billy giving me prayers and telling me I was going to be ok. I believe in Brother Billy.

John R. Vissing

Why I don't cut my hair

It was early in 2007 when I became very tempted to cut my hair, although I knew it was wrong and that I'd been taught that long hair in the Bible means 'uncut' hair.

At that time in my life I was struggling with a few worldly things, and several church sisters I knew had begun to trim their hair and I heard every excuse as to why it was okay. So I eventually decided I would trim my hair, but when I went to do it, I felt so convicted that I decided I would first ask God to clearly show me if I shouldn't cut it at all, and if He didn't answer me I would cut my hair the following week. I think it was two days later, I had a dream where a man was chasing me with a knife and had me cornered and tried to stab me but was unable to touch me with it though he was stabbing wildly towards me. Then a voice said to me, 'He can't touch you because you have uncut hair'.

The next night I had another dream. I saw myself holding scissors about to cut my hair and all around, Angels were crying and pleading for me not to cut it, saying they only have authority to protect me if my hair is uncut. I suddenly realized, though I can't write it in words, what it would mean in the unseen spiritual world if I cut my hair, and I started screaming at myself, 'Don't cut it, please don't cut it !' Needless to say, I didn't cut it !

About 3-4 weeks after this, it was a strangely quiet afternoon at work. I work in our family business 'The Knife Shop', selling knives. At about 4 p.m. there wasn't a person in sight when a drunk crazed man staggered in swearing and shouting that he was going to stab me and kill me. He was very worked up and angry and used extreme foul language. I looked at him and suddenly realized that this was the same man who had unsuccessfully tried to stab me in my dream! And I felt such a peace and just looked straight at him knowing he could do absolutely nothing to hurt me! He suddenly went all nervous and ran out. A few seconds later he walked back in and said, 'Sorry about that Lady' and then left. It's just the grace of God to have prevented me from cutting off my God-given protection when I was already determined to cut my hair. Praise The Lord!

Nearly three years after this, just before I got married the Lord protected me again. I was walking home from work as I usually did. The route which I took was not along the main road but through a park that had quite a secluded area. One evening I was walking through this spot when I saw a man with a dog that looked like a pit-bull Rottweiler cross on the path about 20 metres in front of me. He was just standing there watching me walk towards him. From the look on his face I felt very uncomfortable walking towards him and wondered if I should turn around instead, but then thought I don't want him to think that I am afraid of him, so

I continued walking. When I got up to where he was, two other men jumped out of the bushes where they had been hiding and they surrounded me with very evil looks on their faces. My first thought was this was not a good situation to be in and I wondered what to do. Just then I felt my hair hot like burning on my back (not painfully) and I realised that they could not touch me at all because I had my God given protection and realised that what the Lord showed me three years previously was still true. As soon as I realised this, I had absolutely no fear and I really knew that nothing could happen. Their evil grins changed right then to stunned looks as I just said 'hello' and pushed the dog to one side so I could get past them and kept walking. They just stood there until I was out of sight. As I kept walking home, I was shaking, realising how the Lord had just protected me and I just kept saying to myself "Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world!"

~Inheritance by Marriage~

Sing with me – How Great is our God!
How Great is our God!
I will sing – How Great, how Great is our God!
He’s the Name above ALL names!
My heart will sing – How Great is our God !

Brother Tim Pruitt

Hallelujah! My heart will sing – How great is our God!

All these men and women down through these ages that we are going to speak about this morning, they were women of more importance, of great importance, so great that when the birth of Jesus was being wrote about, the Holy Spirit pointed them out.

Here they were, Ruth and Rahab, partners of the Moabites and Canaanites, the accursed people. Bathsheba and Ruth, both of whom had sexual relations before marriage – Tamar, accused of prostitution, Rahab a prostitute. It would be hard to find a more Canaan bunch of women in the Old Testament than of these women. And Matthew, he didn’t have to mention them in the family tree, in fact, it wasn’t normal to mention women at all. But you see he doesn’t even mention the good, the important and worthy women, who we think are worthy, he just mentions these folk.

Now I want you to think of this, because Tamar was the widow of Judah’s eldest son and according to custom, she was to marry Judah’s second son Onan and if that child was born, that child would be the offspring of her first husband. But Onan didn’t carry out his duties according to the Law and because of this, he was struck dead by God. Now it is noted that Onan would have lost well by raising up seed to his brother because inheritance would be divided by three instead of two. Maybe he felt like he had too much for him to lose in this. But whatever the reason, he wouldn’t perform the Word and because he didn’t, God’s judgement came on him. Amen.

So, now again, Judah’s third son, Shelah, was next in line to marry Tamar. You know the story, if you have read your Bible, but Judah withheld Shelah from marriage because he feared that he would die too. You know, to Judah, this woman had a curse on her. She had had two husbands and she had lost them both. And so if I give my third one, he’ll die too. And so, he makes up an excuse and sends her back home to her father’s house to wait and says we’ll leave her there until his son grows up. But he never kept that promise. She was never given a seed.

Now listen, in that day it was a disgrace not to bring forth children. Now let me tell you something, that’s still a disgrace. It’s a disgrace physically and spiritually. I hope you are hearing me, especially spiritually now. To not bring forth children, it’s a spiritual disgrace. We are to bring forth sons and daughters of God. For the church to practise spiritual birth control, that’s a sin in the sight of God. Are you with me? Amen.

God wants sons and daughters. He wants to see a church on fire for God who have accepted the seed Word and have become pregnated by it and bring forth sons and daughters in His Image and His Likeness. That ought to be the cry of this church, ‘Lord, send souls into this harvest. Amen. Let there be fruits to this ministry. Let it not just be a barren church but let us be a spiritual church, a church where it has the life of God in it, the seed of God in it and they are preganated with God in this church and she is not preganated with Laodicea.’ She is faithful to her husband.

Amen. you may as well help me preach, because I’m going to do it anyhow. Listen again. Tamar, she wanted that child. Listen, let me tell you what was going on. Judah was getting older, Shelha was growing up, a wife had not been given to him, a seed had not been given to Tamar and the light of Judah was about to be extinguished. Amen. If this child is not born, there will be no tribe of Judah and there is Word, the Scripture said, ‘Out of the tribe of Judah!’ – I want to get you to see something church – If God was concerned about the natural seed, how much more would He be concerned about the spiritual seed? And there with that Word the crop would fall to the ground, but He would not let it happen. Oh, God moved on the scene! Amen!

Hallelujah! Something began to happen. Something began to stir up in this little woman’s heart – a desire – whatever I have got to do. If I don’t have that seed, there will be no inheritance. I want an inheritance. Amen. Listen, if this seed was not given to Tamar, she would never have been mentioned. This woman became desperate. Listen, she wasn’t trying to do something immoral. This was her right to have a child because a woman with a child wasn’t a widow after all. She had someone who would care and support her and was part of her family. Otherwise she was an outcast.

This woman wanted an inheritance. Oh, that should burn in the heart of every man, woman, boy and girl here today! Lord God, whatever, give me that inheritance. I want that seed of the Word, Lord. I want to be a part of that inheritance by a union with You. Amen! Well you know exactly what happened, if you read the Bible. The light of Judah was almost extinguished and put out.

In Tamar, something began to move – to move on her heart. He wouldn’t give me his son. I cannot receive of the seed, so there will never be an inheritance for me. I’ll never have a child because I never had a seed. She realised the injustice that was done because the seed was withheld from her. Amen.

And she began to think about that and she thought of a way when Judah’s wife died there. And as Tamar was passing by a certain city, she must have known a little of his habits, because she sat at the side of the road and waited dressed up as a harlot, disguising herself, because she was going to do whatever it took to get that seed. I hope you are reading me today. And so each person should have something burning in their heart, whatever we have to do. Amen. I want to be a part of that inheritance, no matter if I’m thought of as a harlot or a prostitute, whether I’m worthy of death, whatever it is. I’m willing to take the shame and reproach. But I want that seed. That was Tamar. Now I know that is a little hard for us to work out in our minds because we don’t think like the Jews think. We come from a different society. You know, if your brother had died, you wouldn’t worry about her having a child. She could marry somebody else. But in the Jewish society, for this woman to not have this child, she was cursed. She had no inheritance.

Now, I want you to see something – there was something down in this woman’s heart - this longing. Listen! Listen! Hear this longing, this faith down in her heart. There had been a Messiah that had been promised and she believed that Messiah would come and she knew He would come through the tribe of Judah and she knew if she could just receive that seed, there would be a child that would be born from her that would produce that seed and if He wasn’t the seed, he would produce that seed that the Messiah would come through, that come from her. OH my, this began to burn in her heart.

And as you know, the Bible tells you she became pregnant and she kept Judah’s staff and his seal which proved that he was the father, after she was accused of this horrible sin of adultery and she was to be burned with fire – but she had a token that this child was not of the Canaanites or some other nation or from adultery, but this child was the rightful heir. Hallelujah! Amen! Every one of you that has the Holy Ghost, has the Token and can say that this thing that is inside of me is NOT of the world. It’s not of some cult somewhere. It’s not of some religious man or some fanatic, but God came down into my life and I received of His Seed Word. Impregnated within my heart is that Holy Ghost. Amen! Hallelujah! That shows that is exactly what it is.

Now as we see, Tamar ascended from a nobody, a nothing, but by union. Are you with me now? By union, by receiving that seed and she becomes now, one of the noted female ancestors, in that genealogy of Jesus Christ. Amen. And her name is listed because this woman was a woman of faith. Hallelujah! And no matter what the cost was, she was going to bring forth that Promised Seed.

Now this story shows one of the main themes from the Book of Genesis and as you know, that brings forth one of the promises to bring the Jewish people through many generations against all odds. You can see the desperation in these women to inherit this promise, that desperation – what are we going to do? Whatever the cost; and she inherited the promise by union and she, instead of descending, ascended. Amen! Hallelujah! And by this union, it elevated her to this special designation. Hallelujah! Glory to God!

Now we'll think about another woman. We'll go through these quickly as we go along because I want to talk about the inheritance. We think about another woman by the name of Rahab. Now, how did Rahab descend? Now look, she didn't have a very good beginning.. She was a lowly prostitute, albeit, a predestined seed. Hallelujah! Now listen, a seed, among those who God said, 'go and destroy them all'.

Come on somebody, the whole nation was cursed, but there wasn't one of them in there that wasn't part of the curse. The Bible said she was a woman of faith. I don't know how you can have faith if you are a prostitute. I don't know how you can have faith if you are not only a prostitute but a member of a cursed nation that God had said, 'destroy them all – big ones and little ones, every one of them. Come on, help me preach. But in all this, God had a predestined seed and God had to send those men down there to find her. Hallelujah.

You know, that ought to give you some hope. Amen. Because no matter where you were born, no matter what family or situation that you came from, God rich in mercy called you out, selected you and predestinated you, and ordained you to life. And He made sure! Hallelujah! He made sure His Messenger came by her way. Hallelujah! That's my God! He's not going to lose one of His!

Now, she was a predestined seed and God has predestined seed in the worst places you can think of. Hallelujah. In the worst places you can think of. Amen. That gives us hope. That gives us hope no matter how far down in the gutter of humanity we could go, God takes some of His Best from some of the worst places. God takes the remnant, the rejected, the refuse in some of the worst places, rejected of society and makes something of them and when He comes down to record His Word, He says, I don't want you to miss this! There's a woman in here, I want you to hear about Rahab! Well, what's so good about Rahab? She was a prostitute. She was a predestinated seed in dire straits. Well she was a prostitute That's not what was so good about her. She was amongst a bunch of believers who were believing. Amen Who began to pray and look upon God and say, Lord, I know things are happening. There's a destroying Angel coming, and there's wrath coming in our world, but Lord, somehow, Save me!

You know, I think something began to call out in her heart and I think that she saw a people who had come and left Egypt in a shambles and she began to believe – she saw the people who had come out of Egypt and had walked through the Red Sea and there was nothing wet on their clothes They walked through on dry land and were led through the wilderness and drank water from the rock, defeated their enemy every which way they turned and she had heard – oh my, she had never seen them but she had heard about it and faith comes by hearing and she began to believe and she could see that there were a people there that were ascended. I live in a nation that is going down. Amen, it's a bottomless pit. There's no hope for it. There's no salvation for it. We've sinned away our day of grace. There's no hope for this place whatsoever, but I can say, there's a people ascending. There are people rising up, there are people coming into their promise and she said I want to be a part of that. Something began to burn in her heart. She didn't know how she was going to do it. She didn't know how it was going to be but she knew the inhabitants of that land were going to be destroyed and she said, I've heard of those Amalekites.

She wasn't afraid. She was challenged to believe that somehow, she could be a part of it – a part of that ascension – somebody as low as I am. And her a harlot. And the people could say, You, a prostitute? Your house is known as a harlot's house. You are not a people that they would even want to associate with. You're not somebody that they would incorporate into their tribe. You are a person that they would disdain and hate and destroy. They wouldn't contact. Oh my, but she wasn't afraid. She was challenged to believe that she, somehow could be a part of those people who were ascended. You see that faith looks at impossibilities and sees possibilities. Hallelujah! And of course you know that God sent those spies right to her house. What a place to send your sons to. What a place to hide the elect in. What a place to show up in – a harlot's house. But God had a divine appointment. Come on, somebody. Sometimes we can't see why Jesus went by the woman at the well. He turned His disciples away. He couldn't talk to her with them there. But that was a divine appointment for somebody's life. Sometimes we can't see how He could take a woman like Mary Magdalene whom He cast out, not one devil....seven devils. Who would want to be her friend? Come on, this is one who you wouldn't want to hob-nob with. You wouldn't want to be seen with But Jesus found her in that condition. I believe..I don't know how you believe , but I can't help it. Casting those devils out of Mary Magdalene He was seeing His own Bride, this one defiled of the devil. Wrecked and ruined and rejected but when He looked down into her eyes that day and saw something down in her heart, He said, come out you devils of Ephesus and Smyrna and all the way down to Laodicea. I'm going to have this sinless, spotless Bride and she's going to witness my resurrection, I'm going to have this sinless Bride. She's going to testify to my disciples and tell them that He's not dead, but risen.

This little woman, Rahab, she risked her life hiding these men, but really, she was preserving her life. She was looking at a divine promise. Hallelujah. I know, I know these people are going to come here. I know our city is going down .I know that we are a doomed race of people and I know that God is with you. She had quite a testimony In Joshua ch 2 v9, “And she said to the men, I know that the Lord has given you the land and that your terror is fallen upon us and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.” Hallelujah! Listen, she could testify. The devils - they are afraid of you. Your terror has fallen on them and everybody in the land is faint because of you, if only we could get this testimony ourselves. Listen, do you fear Cancer? I would like to ask the question, “Does Cancer fear you?” Amen! Come on people, those that are called and ordained and know their position are ready to cast satan out. This little woman, Rahab said in v10 “For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red Sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt, and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side: Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.” V11, “And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the Lord your God, He is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.” I wish a number of you believers would get that revelation – The Lord your God, the One you serve. Amen! We recognise the God that you serve, He is God in heaven but He's also God in the earth. He is God in your situation: He is God in your troubles And when the Red Sea would get in your way, and you have the Promise you have a right to walk right through it and when the dessert sets in your way, you have the right to take water from the rock and take Angels' food to get right through it. Come on somebody Amen!

As soon as we heard it, our hearts did melt. Listen, this condition, the enemy gives, “We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, wickedness in high places” and I want you to understand that when the Prophet saw you coming, he screamed out to the devil, “satan, be careful, watch out. That One who you have heard about all these years, that is going to dispossess you – Come on church, - is going to totally overthrow you and tie your kingdom down. She's a believing people! She knows how to do exploits! She knows she's the continuation of the Book of Acts! She knows she's the Power of God in action! She knows she's the Arm of the Lord! She knows that He is the Vine and she's the Branches! [Amen and Amen! We say.]

Israel & Jordan Autumn Tour

Oct 18th - 30th, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ. Shalom and greetings to you in Jesus name.

With the start of the New Year we are writing to share with you our plans to host another tour of Israel and Jordan. The Lord willing, the dates will be Saturday, October 18 until Thursday, October 30.

We begin our tour at Shiloh, the site of the Old Testament Tabernacle. We will tour numerous other biblical sites throughout northern Israel including Mt Carmel, location of Elijah's great show down. From this vantage point on Mt Carmel, the Valley of Megiddo spreads out before you, the scene of the epic showdown in the Battle of Armageddon. We will also visit many of the areas Jesus ministered in and around the Galilee. We will stand on the strategic Golan Heights looking down into Syria and Damascus in the distance. We will also visit the Dead Sea, Masada and other sites. The last five nights will be spent in Jerusalem, where there is so much to see and do. We will stand atop the Mt. of Olives, have a time of prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane and conclude the tour with a special time of quiet reflection and a short service at the Garden Tomb.

Once again we are pleased to confirm our special guest, Rabbi Richman of the Temple Institute, who will personally guide us in Samaria, on the Temple Mount and also in Hebron. Rabbi Richman is one of the team of leading Rabbi's that makes up the Temple Institute. These Biblical Scholars fulfill an important role in Biblical Prophecy as they have devoted themselves to the study and rebuilding of the implements for future Temple reconstruction and worship. You will see prophecy in fulfillment before your very eyes.

Midway through the tour we will cross over into Jordan for two days to experience Arab culture first hand. We will visit Mt. Nebo where Moses viewed the Promised Land, the Baptism site on the Jordan River and the ancient city of Petra, one of the modern day "Seven Wonders" of the world. Our last night in Jordan will be spent in a beautiful resort right on the Dead Sea.

An excursion through bible lands can also be a tremendous spiritual experience. Many who have been with us on previous tours attested to how profoundly their hearts and lives were touched. You will not only enjoy the unique sights and sounds of these bible lands, but will I'm sure, have your vision for these prophetic last days expanded in ways you never expected.

A couple of short videos about Israel that I'd recommend which can be viewed on YouTube are; Samaria – Where Jewish History Meets Jewish Destiny; <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kWZNNWGY7V0>; The beautiful city of Jerusalem; <http://vimeo.com/72491371>; And one rated as perhaps the most important video about Israel you will ever see; <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ydwx9yqhzM&feature=relmfu>

We will look forward to hearing from you and to answer any questions you may have – and will be glad to have you join us in what promises to be an experience of a lifetime.

Your brother and sister in Christ,

Brother Tony & Sister Rebekah Abma

Marsden Bay Easter Family Camp 2014

Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand, Stand therefore ☐ - EPHESIANS 6:13 - 14

Greetings in the Precious Name of Jesus Christ

When you finally get to read this, we will have approximately one and half months left before the start of the camp. The planning and arrangements are going full steam ahead

The camp is filling up quite nicely, thus we would like to provide the following update:

Believers, please be aware that NO monies paid for accommodation goes to the church coffers. All monies paid go towards the accommodation costs.

Our Prophet echoes our purpose for the camp in the quote below:

O.LORD.JUST.ONCE.MORE_ HOT.SPRINGS.AR V-20 N-10 (63-0628M) FRIDAY

Then Samson cried out, "Lord, they poked my eyes out. I know that You are God. I know that You have power to do it. I know You can set me free from these fetters. Just once more, Lord, just once more!" Just once more, Lord, just once more! Let there be a camp meeting on the side of a hill, like there was on the hill at the Upper Room. Let there come a sound from Heaven, like a rushing mighty wind, fill all the house, visible evidence of the resurrected Christ. "Just once more, Lord, just once more," he cried. As he cried out, in sincerity, standing there, and his blinded eyes. "I know the price, Lord, but just once more!"

There is a possibility. There is a possibility right here in this camp meeting. There is a possibility right here at this hour. There is a possibility, if we're ready to pay the price, we can see another Acts 2 take place. "Once more, Lord! We've messed it up. We've organized. We've broke up our brotherhood. We've separated our fellowship. We've took a little group over here. We're fighting with one another, and the devil is sitting back, watching us whip one another down. Lord, is it possible that once more that all hundred and twenty of us can be in one accord in one place? Is it possible that there come a sound from Heaven, as a rushing mighty wind? Once more, Lord, once more!"

Please continue to keep us in your prayers
